Mike- I went back into Fashion Valley yesterday and the shoes were on the primary display and looked great. Thanks for the explanation..... You will receive tomorrow 2 pair of Drivers in 10.5 med. Anxious to hear your thoughts.

Hi Dan,

Your product is just starting to hit the stores. It is (and has been) planned to go up onto our primary (first) table beginning today on the promo shift. Next time you go into a store, it should be on the front table.

Best regards,
Mike

Mike- I was in the Fashion Valley store over the weekend and saw our images displayed in the window and on the first display within the store on the right hand side. Unfortunately our footwear was only displayed on the side wall. Our footwear would certainly blend with what was being showcased both in the window and on the display. Any chance of having our footwear displayed as prominently as our photos?
