FACTUAL BACKGROUND

are ascertained. Weissman and Does 1-10 are collectively referred to herein as

- Nike is engaged in the manufacture, design and sale of tootwear, 8. apparel, and related accessories. Products manufactured and sold by Nike bear the NIKE trademark, or an arbitrary and distinctive trademark which has come to be known as the Swoosh Design trademark, or a composite trademark consisting of the word NIKE and the Swoosh Design. Nike uses these trademarks on shoes and apparel as trademarks of Nike's high quality products. Nike sells in excess of $4,500,000,000 a year in merchandise bearing its distinctive trademarks.
- 9. All products described above are sold with one or more of the Nike trademarks alleged in paragraph 8. Nike adopted and used the NIKE and Swoosh Design trademarks in 1971. Nike registered the NIKE trademark in block letters on May 8, 1984, Registration No. 1,277,066 in Class 25 for apparel. Nike registered the Swoosh Design on July 3, 1984, Registration No. 1,284,385 for apparel in Class 25. Nike registered the composite mark of Nike and the Swoosh Design trademark on May 10, 1983, for apparel in Class 25. And, more recently, Nike has registered the NIKE AIR trademark, Registration No. 1,591,006, for apparel in Class 25.
- Additionally, Nike obtained registrations for word marks incorporating 10. the word "air", including AIR JORDAN, AIR MAX and AIR TRAINER. These are some, but by no means all, of Nike's federal trademark registrations Each of The

Nike Trademarks have been registered with the United States Patent and Trademark Office pursuant to the Lanham Act (15 U.S.C. § 1051). A list of Nik: 's federal trademark registrations are attached hereto as Exhibit "A". (The trademarks identified in Exhibit "A" are collectively referred to herein as the "Nike Trademarks.") All of the Nike Trademarks are current and in full force and effect.
Many of the marks have become incontestable pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1065.
Additionally, all of the Nike Trademarks qualify as famous marks pursuant to 15
U.S.C. § 1125.

- 11. The Nike Trademarks are distinctive when applied to the high quality apparel, footwear and related merchandise signify to the purchaser that the products come from Nike and are manufactured to the highest quality standard. Whether Nike manufactures the products itself, or licenses others to do it, Nike has insured that products bearing its trademarks are manufactured to such standard. Nike's products have been widely accepted by the public and are enormously popular, as demonstrated by billions of dollars in sales each year.
- 12. This enormous popularity is not without cost, as evidenced by the increasing number of counterfeiters in the United States and around the world. Indeed, it is a modern irony that companies measure success by the extent of their counterfeiting problem.

DEFENDANTS' UNLAWFUL CONDUCT

- 13. Defendants are involved in the manufacture, purchase, distribution, offering for sale and/or sale of counterfeit and/or infringing footwear bearing the Nike Trademarks to the general public. Defendants do so using the Website.
- 14. Nike is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that Defendants processes purchases of counterfeit and infringing footwear incorporating likenesses of one or more of the Nike Trademarks.

Nike v. Weissman: Complaint

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

(Trademark Infringement)

- 15. Nike hereby repeats and alleges the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 14 above, as if set forth fully herein.
- 16. Nike's claim arises under Sections 32 and 43 of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1114 and 1125, for infringement of registered and unregistered marks.
- 17. Nike owns the exclusive trademark rights to those trademarks listed on Exhibit "A". All of the trademark registrations are in full force and effect. In many instances the trademarks have become incontestable pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1065.
- 18. All advertising and products, including apparel, footwear, watches, jewelry and related merchandise, which have been sold by Nike, or under its authority, have been manufactured and distributed in conformity with the provisions of the United States trademark law.
- 19. Notwithstanding Nike's well known and prior common law and statutory rights in the Nike Trademarks, Defendants have, with actual and constructive notice of Nike's federal registration rights, and long after Nike established its rights in the Nike Trademarks, adopted and used the Nike Trademarks in conjunction with the manufacture, purchase, distribution, offer of sale and sale of footwear in the State of California and in interstate commerce.
- 20. Defendants have caused to be imported, distributed, offered for sale and sold footwear bearing one or more of the Nike Trademarks without the authorization of Nike. Defendants' manufacture, purchase, distribution, offer for sale and sale of footwear and related merchandise bearing the Nike Trademarks in California, and in interstate commerce has and is likely to cause confusion, deception and mistake or to deceive as to the source and origin of the footwear and related merchandise in that the buying public will conclude that the products sold by Defendants are authorized, sponsored, approved or associated with Nike.

- 31. As a direct result of Nike's longstanding use, sales, advertising and marketing, the Nike Trademarks have acquired secondary and distinctive meaning among the public who have come to identify the Nike Trademarks with Nike and its products.
- 32. The unauthorized and counterfeit footwear and related merchandise which has been manufactured, purchased, distributed, offered for sale and sold by Defendants, duplicates and appropriates the Nike Trademarks in order to delude and confuse the public into believing that such footwear and related merchandise are authorized, sponsored, approved or associated with Nike.
- Defendants, by misappropriating and using the likenesses of the Nike 33. - 41. As a result of Nike's continuous promotion of its products in conjunction with the Nike Trademarks, the Nike Trademarks have become recognized as distinctive and famous trademarks.
- Defendants' use in commerce of the Nike Trademarks began after the 42. Nike Trademarks had become famous and has caused dilution of the distinctive quality of the marks. Such conduct has caused injury to Nike pursua it to 15 U.S.C. § 1125(c).
- 43. Such dilution has occurred as a direct result of Defendar ts' display. advertising and promotion, both in-store and otherwise, of the infringing footwear and other merchandise.
- 44. Defendants willfully intended to trade on Nike's reputation and/or to cause dilution of the famous trademarks. Accordingly, Nike is entitled to recover its damages, as well as Defendants' profits received as a result of the infringement, pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1117(a).

FOURTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

(For Unfair Competition - California Law)

- Nike hereby repeats and realleges the allegations set for h in paragraphs 46. 1 through 45, above, as if set forth fully herein.
- The Nike Trademarks have acquired secondary meaning indicative of 47. origin, relationship, sponsorship and/or association with Nike. The purchasing public is likely to attribute to Nike the use by Defendants of the Nike Trademarks or any of them, as a source of origin, authorization and/or sponsorship for Defendants' goods and therefore to purchase such goods based upon that erroneo is belief.

- 48. Nike is informed and believes, and upon that basis alleges, that Defendants have intentionally appropriated the Nike trademarks with the intent of causing confusion, mistake and deception as to the source of their goods and with the intent to palm off such goods as those of Nike and, as such, Defendants have committed trademark infringement, misleading advertising and unfair competition, all in violation of the California Unfair Business Practices Act, Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code, § 17200, et seq.
- Defendants' appropriation, adoption and use of one or more of the Nike Trademarks, including the sale and offering for sale of infringing shoes bearing or using one or more of the Nike Trademarks in connection with the prevision of goods is likely to cause confusion between Defendants' infringing product and the goods authorized and licensed by the Nike, thus constituting a violation of the California Unfair Business Practices Act, Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code, § 17200, et seq.
- Nike is informed and believes, and upon that basis alleges, that these 50. deceptive, unfair and fraudulent practices have been undertaken with knowledge by Defendants of their wrongfulness. Nike is informed and believes, and upon that basis alleges, that Defendants' use of Nike's trademarks is for the willful and calculated purpose of misappropriating Plaintiff's goodwill and business reputation, at Nike's expense and at no expense to Defendants. By taking one of more of the Nike Trademarks, Nike has been deprived of an opportunity to conduct business using its trademarks and deprived of the right to control the use of its trademarks and Defendants have been unjustly enriched.
- Nike has no adequate remedy at law and has suffered and is continuing 51. to suffer irreparable harm and damage as a result of Defendants' acts in an amount thus far not determined but within the jurisdiction of this Court.

19

- Nike is informed and believes, and upon that basis alleges, that unless 52. enjoined by the Court, the confusion and deception alleged herein and the likelihood thereof will continue with irreparable harm and damage to Nike.
- Nike is informed and believes, and upon that basis alleges, that 53. Defendants have unlawfully and wrongfully derived and will continue to derive income, gains, profits and advantages as a result of their wrongful acts of unfair competition, in amounts thus far not determined but within the jurisd ction of this Court. Nike is informed and believes, and upon that basis alleges, that it has lost and will continue to lose profits and goodwill as a result of Defendants' conduct.
- By reason of the foregoing acts of unfair competition, Nike is entitled to 54. restitution from Defendants of all income, gains, profits and advantages resulting from their wrongful conduct in amounts to be determined according to proof at trial.
- In order to determine the full extent of such damages, including such 55. profits as may be recoverable; Nike will require an accounting from Defendants of all monies generated from the manufacture, importation, distribution and/or sale of the infringing product.
- Nike is informed and believes, and upon that basis alleges, that 56. Defendants committed the acts alleged herein intentionally, fraudulently, maliciously, willfully, wantonly and oppressively, with intent to injure Nike in its business and with conscious disregard for Nike's rights, thereby just fying awards of punitive and exemplary damages in amounts sufficient to punish and to set an example for others.

SIXTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

(Dilution under California Law)
