FACTS COMMON TO ALL COUNTS

The Van Cleef & Arpels Brand and Business

12. The Van Cleef & Arpels business has its origins in 1898, when Alfred Van Cleef married Estelle Arpels, and proceeded to open a jewelry business with her brothers at 22 Place Vendome in Paris. Plaintiffs and their affiliates and predecessors in interest are famous for the production of fine luxury watches and jewelry, innovation in watch and jewelry styles and designs, and introduction of new and important jewelry technologies, including the introduction of a patented invisible-setting technique in the 1930s. For many years, and long since before the acts of the Defendants complained of herein, VCA has been engaged in the manufacture and sale in interstate and intrastate commerce of high quality luxury watches and jewelry, rings and related goods (the "VCA Products").

The Alhambra Jewelry Design

Case 9:08-cv-80035-DTKH

13. VCA is the owner of all rights, including the copyright, in the Alhambra Jewelry Design (hereinafter the "ALHAMBRA Jewelry Design"). That design appears thus:

- The ALHAMBRA Jewelry Design is an original and creative work of VCA and 14. its team of designers, and such design is validly protected by copyright. VCA is the owner of all rights in such design.
- 15. VCA owns Copyright Registration No. GP 101,958 for the ALHAMBRA Jewelry Design, which was first received by the Copyright Office on January 7, 1976. A copy of this registration is attached hereto and identified as Complaint Exhibit 1 (the "ALHAMBRA Jewelry Design Registration").
- On November 13, 2007 VCA recorded a document entitled "Second Statement 16. Regarding Copyright Registration." A copy of the November 15, 2007 recordation is attached hereto and identified as Complaint Exhibit 2.

The ALHAMBRA Trade Dress

VCA's Alhambra Jewelry features a distinctive and unique combination of 17. elements that collectively create a particular trade dress (the "ALHAMBRA Trade Dress"). The ALHAMBRA Trade Dress consists of a collocation of design elements. The combination of all or almost all such elements together give the jewelry a distinct overall look and commercial impression making it instantly recognisable. Although these elements cannot be perfectly described in words, the following generally describes the elements of the ALHAMBRA Trade Dress:

A quatrefoil shaped ornament comprising:

- 1. four identical lobes:
- 2. each lobe having a semicircular shape;
- 3. the lobes having both left-right and top-bottom symmetry;
- 4. an outer band;
- 5. having a constant width;
- 6. the outer surface of the band defining the contour of the ornament;
- 7. the inner surface of the band defining an inner or central portion;
- 8. having four identical cusps (inner points of the lobes) which extend about half way into the ornament;
- 9. the inner portion;
- 10. having a quatrefoil shape defined by the inner surface of the outer band; and
- 11. which is either hollowed out or made of a single filling material, such as mother of pearl, onyx, lapis, diamonds or metal, and may include a small centered jewel.
- 18. The collocation of features set forth in the above paragraph herein constitutes a distinctive trade dress that has secondary meaning. This design has been extensively promoted by VCA in the United States and has achieved significant sales success. The public has come to recognize this design as distinctive of this line of VCA jewelry and as an indication of source of such jewelry. The ALHAMBRA Trade Dress is thus a means by which VCA is known to the public and the trade as the sole source and origin of Alhambra jewelry.

19. The ALHAMBRA Trade Dress is in no way functional.

Document 1

The Lucky Alhambra Jewelry Collection

Van Cleef is the owner of all rights, including the copyright, in what is known as 20. the Lucky Alhambra Jewelry Collection. That collection appears thus:

(hereinafter the "LUCKY ALHAMBRA Jewelry Collection").

- 21. The LUCKY ALHAMBRA Jewelry Collection is an original and creative work of Van Cleef and its team of designers, and such design is validly protected by copyright. Van Cleef is the owner of all rights in such design.
- 22. The LUCKY ALHAMBRA JEWELRY COLLECTION was first offered for sale outside the United States, and its respective designers were not all U.S. nationals. Accordingly, such a design is not a "U.S. Work" within the meaning of 17 U.S.C. §§ 101 and 411 and no registration is required to maintain this action.
- 23. In addition, Van Cleef filed an application for registration of the LUCKY ALHAMBRA Jewelry Collection, but such application was refused. Van Cleef is thus entitled to maintain this action under 17 U.S.C. § 411, because "the deposit, application, and fee required for registration have been delivered to the Copyright Office in proper form and registration has been refused," 17 U.S.C. § 411. Notice of this action, along with a copy of the complaint, is being served upon the Register of Copyrights as required by the statute.
- 24. All of the above-identified jewelry designs are collectively referenced herein as the "VAN CLEEF Jewelry Designs" and the copyrights therein collectively as the "VAN CLEEF Copyrights."

Defendants' Infringing Activities

25. Defendants have manufactured, sold, offered for sale and/or distributed copies of the VAN CLEEF Jewelry Designs and products embodying the ALHAMBRA Trade Dress. Upon information and belief, Defendants have further manufactured, sold, offered for sale and/or distributed copies of other designs proprietary to VCA, which are protected by copyrights and/or trade dress rights.

SECOND STATEMENT REGARDING COPYRIGHT REGISTRATION

This statement is to correct and clarify certain information submitted to the Copyright Office by Van Cleef & Arpels, Inc. with respect to the copyright registration for the "Alhambra" Necklace #4V258 - Gold & Semi-Precious Stones, GP 101958, and the first "Statement Regarding Copyright Registration" which was recorded on December 13, 2006. (A copy of the latter is attached as Exhibit A).

The following items of information should be corrected or clarified:

- (1) On line number 6(a), the date of publication was identified in the original registration as "10/31/68." This is correct. The statement recorded on December 13, 2006 that this date should have been identified as November 1970 is incorrect.
- (2) On line number 6(b), the place of publication was identified as "USA" but should have been identified as France. This was already corrected in the statement recorded on December 13, 2006.
- (3) On line number 5, the author was listed in the original registration as Van Cleef & Arpels, Inc. This statement was incorrect. The correct author is the Société de Lapidaires et Professionnels de la Recherche Artistique, also known as "SLEPRA." That company was a French corporation, domiciled in France, having an address at 22 Place Vendôme, 75001 Paris, France.

(4) Van Cleef & Arpels, Inc., is a New York corporation having its place of business at 12 West 57th Street, New York, NY. Van Cleef & Arpels, Inc. is the assignee of the copyright from SLEPRA and is the current owner and claimant thereof.

Space-by-Space instructions

Space 1: First party given in the document This information is only used to connect the Document Cover Sheet and the document if they become separated. No information is entered in the catalog record from this space.

Space z: First title given in the document. This information is only used to connect the Document Cover Sheet and the document if they become separated. No information is entered in the catalog record from this space.

Space 3: Fotal number of titles in the document. The total number of titles fincluding a.k.a. and other variant titles of a work) determines the recordation fee. In the case of multiple title documents, titles that are repeated in documents are counted as a single title, except where the document first different issues, volumes, episode numbers, etc. following each title. Each such entry is regarded as a separate title and will be indexed separately and counted separately when computing the fee for recording the document. The Copyright Office verifies title counts.

Space q: Amount of fee calculated There is a basic fee for recording a document containing one title. There is an additional charge for each group of up to to additional titles. "Alternative" titles, "formerly-known-as" titles, and "also-known-as" titles are considered to be extra titles. Titles are counted by groups. If there are fewer than to titles in a group, the fee for a group still applies. Copyright Office fees are subject to change. For current fees, check the Copyright Office website at www.copyright.gov, write the Copyright Office, or call[202] 707-3000. Please remember that the fee is based on the number of titles in a document, not the number of works.
