LOUIS VUITTON MALLETIER, S.A.

Plaintiff,

v.

CONSUMER RESEARCH CORPORATION,
SUBSCRIBERBASE, INC., SUBSCRIBERBASE
HOLDINGS, INC., and JEFFREY L. FRENCH

Defendants.

Case No.:

07 CA 11260 NMG

MAGISTRATE JUDGE Sorokin

COMPLAINT

Plaintiff Louis Vuitton Malletier, S.A. ("Louis Vuitton" or "Plaintiff"), for its Complaint against Defendants Consumer Research Corporation, SubscriberBASE, Inc., SubscriberBASE Holdings, Inc., and Jeffrey L. French (collectively "Defendants"), alleges as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. Plaintiff is one of the world's best-known manufacturers of highly-desired luxury goods, including handbags. Plaintiff's products grace the pages of fashion magazines and the arms of celebrities seen throughout the media. In view of Plaintiff's fame and reputation garnered as a result of such continuous, high-profile publicity, as well as the enormous success of Plaintiff's respective businesses, Plaintiff has become among the favored targets for those who seek to take a free ride on and profit from the reputation of a well-established and prominent brand. This case is an example of such unlawful conduct.

2. This case concerns the intentional, systematic and wholesale unauthorized use and theft of world-famous trademarks and designs owned by Plaintiff, including the famous trademarks LV, LOUIS VUITTON, the Louis Vuitton design marks, as well as the copyrighted designs and images of Louis Vuitton. Defendants are engaged in the unauthorized use and exploitation of Louis

Vuitton trademarks for their own pecuniary gain. They lure unwitting consumers to their websites using the famous Louis Vuitton trademarks and, in exchange for the promise of a “free” Louis Vuitton handbag and wallet, Defendants receive valuable, personal information from the consumer, as well as fees. To further their passing off, Defendants have unlawfully taken Plaintiff’s proprietary photographic images of its products and have reproduced them on the Internet to promote Defendants’ infringing activities.

3. Plaintiff has demanded that Defendants cease their infringing conduct. Defendants have promised to cease their unlawful conduct, but have continued the same conduct in violation of their promise.

4. Plaintiff asserts claims for trademark infringement under §32(1) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. §1114(1); unfair competition, false advertising and false designation of origin under §43(a) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. §1125(a); dilution under §43(c) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. §1125(c); copyright infringement under 17 U.S.C. §101, et. seq., and for unfair and deceptive business practices under Chapter 93A of Massachusetts law.

5. Plaintiff seeks injunctive relief to prevent the unauthorized and unlawful use of the Louis Vuitton trademarks and recovery of Defendants’ profits flowing from their use of Plaintiff’s trademarks. Plaintiff seeks further injunctive relief to prevent Defendants’ use of Plaintiff’s copyrighted photographic images and handbag designs, and monetary relief, including recovery of Plaintiff’s damages and Defendants’ profits generated from their use of such images and designs, or, at Plaintiff’s election, statutory damages pursuant to Section 504(c) of the Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. §504(c). Plaintiff also seeks recovery of its attorney’s fees, any other relief authorized by the Lanham Act, the Copyright Act and applicable state law, and such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.

FACTS COMMON TO ALL CLAIMS FOR RELIEF

A. Louis Vuitton's Business, Trademarks and Copyrights

14. Louis Vuitton has been using the LV Trademarks continuously in interstate commerce in the United States and throughout the world since as early as 1897 (see Paragraph 18 for first use dates for each of the LV Trademarks).

15. Louis Vuitton is the sole and exclusive distributor in the United States of high-quality handbags, leather goods and other products bearing the LV Trademarks, which are exclusively manufactured in France, Spain and San Dimas, California.

16. Louis Vuitton sells its products through its own network of 374 exclusive high-end Louis Vuitton boutiques in the United States and throughout the world. In the United States, Louis Vuitton also sells its products in high-quality retail stores such as Saks Fifth Avenue and Neiman Marcus that contain departments operated by Louis Vuitton and staffed by Louis Vuitton personnel. Products bearing the LV Trademarks are prominently displayed throughout all Louis Vuitton boutiques and departments. On the Internet, Louis Vuitton sells its products only through the website www.eluxury.com. Louis Vuitton does not sell its high-end products through licensees or franchisees and Louis Vuitton has not authorized independent retail vendors to engage in services and advertising utilizing or displaying the LV Trademarks.

17. The LV Trademarks are prominently featured in advertisements for Louis Vuitton's handbags and other products, which appear in nationally distributed magazines including, for example, Vogue, Harper's Bazaar, W, Elle, The New Yorker and In Style. In the past two years alone, Louis Vuitton has spent in excess of $28 million on advertising which features the LV Trademarks. In addition to Louis Vuitton's own advertising efforts, products bearing the LV Trademarks are frequently the subject of fashion editorials. This coverage reaches hundreds of millions of consumers.

18. As a result of the Louis Vuitton boutiques, the extensive advertising of Louis Vuitton's products under the LV Trademarks, the widespread sale of Louis Vuitton products, and the celebrity that Louis Vuitton and the LV Trademarks have achieved, handbags and other products bearing one or more of the LV Trademarks have been and are now recognized by the public and the trade as originating from a single source, Louis Vuitton. Indeed, in 2005, Louis Vuitton was ranked No. 83 on the renowned Women's Wear Daily list of the 100 Best-Known Brands in the fashion industry.

19. Louis Vuitton is the owner of all rights in and to numerous U.S. registrations for the LV Trademarks in connection with handbags and other leather goods, including, but not limited to, the following:

MARK	REG. NO.	REGISTRATION DATE	FIRST USE (FU) / FOREIGN REG. (FR) DATE
LV and design	297,594	September 20, 1932	FU - 1897
LOUIS VUITTON	1,045,932	August 10, 1976	FU - 1925
Interlocking LV design	1,519,828	January 10, 1989	FU - 1925
LV and design	1,643,625	May 7, 1991	FU - December 31, 1959
LV and design	1,653,663	August 13, 1991	FU - December 31, 1959
Pattern design (textured)	1,841,850	June 28, 1994	FR – April 20, 1990
Flower design	2,181,753	August 18, 1998	FR – February 23, 1996

(the “LV Trademark Registrations”). Copies of the LV Trademark Registrations are attached hereto as Exhibit A.

20. All of the LV Trademark Registrations are valid, subsisting, and in full force and effect. Moreover, all of the LV Trademark Registrations are incontestable pursuant to Section 15 of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. §1065, and serve as conclusive evidence of Louis Vuitton’s ownership of the marks and of its exclusive right to use the marks in commerce on or in connection with all of the goods identified in the LV Trademark Registrations, as provided by Section 33(b) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. §1115(b).

21. Because of Louis Vuitton's exclusive and extensive use of the LV Trademarks, the LV Trademarks have acquired enormous value and have become extremely well known to the consuming public and trade as identifying and distinguishing Louis Vuitton exclusively and uniquely as the source of products available under the LV Trademarks. Due to the worldwide public acceptance, overwhelming fame and great recognition of products bearing or sold under the LV

Trademarks, these trademarks have come to represent the enormous goodwill of Louis Vuitton and have caused merchandise bearing the Louis Vuitton Trademarks -- even unauthorized goods -- to be in great demand.

22. Based on the worldwide success of the Louis Vuitton boutiques and the extensive sales of Louis Vuitton's products and their wide popularity, the LV Trademarks are famous and have developed secondary meaning and significance in the minds of the purchasing public, and the products utilizing and/or bearing such marks and names are immediately identified by the purchasing public with Louis Vuitton.

23. Louis Vuitton is also the owner of the following U.S. Copyright Registrations for the LV Designs: VA-1-225-388, VA-1-225-389, VA-1-225-390, VA-1-225-391, VA 1-250-121-and VA 1-250-120 ("the LV Designs"). The LV copyright registrations are valid and subsisting. (Copies of copyright registrations VA 1-250-120 and 121 are attached hereto as Exhibit B).

24. The LV Properties are vital to Louis Vuitton, and Louis Vuitton will suffer irreparable harm if any third parties, including Defendants herein, are allowed to continue using the LV Properties or to advertise goods bearing the LV Properties.

B. Defendants' Infringing Conduct

25. The Defendants are actively and knowingly engaged in the use of the LV Properties without authorization from Louis Vuitton to advertise and promote their own products and services on the Internet that are entirely unrelated to Louis Vuitton ("Infringing Activities").

26. Defendants' Infringing Activities and Infringing Material have entered into commerce, including within the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. Upon information and belief, among other channels of trade, Defendants have used numerous Internet websites to exploit the LV Properties for Defendants' own advertising advantage, including, but not limited to the Internet Websites.

27. Defendants are not licensed by Plaintiff and, at all relevant times, were not authorized by Plaintiff to use any of Plaintiff's LV Properties, to distribute goods bearing any of the LV Properties or to use the LV Properties for any purpose.

28. Defendants' Infringing Activities began long after Plaintiff's adoption and use of Plaintiff's LV Properties on a diverse range of goods, including handbags, and after Plaintiff obtained the trademark and copyright registrations listed above. Defendants' conduct is specifically designed to trade on Plaintiff's rights and the fame of Plaintiff's LV Properties. By their wrongful conduct, Defendants have traded upon and diminished the Plaintiff's goodwill, which has been created through Plaintiff's decades of continuous use of the LV Properties in connection with high-quality handbags and other merchandise.

29. By engaging in the Infringing Activities, Defendants have acted in willful disregard of laws protecting Plaintiff's goodwill, copyrights, trademarks and related proprietary rights and have confused and deceived the consuming public and the public at large concerning the source and sponsorship of the Infringing Activities. Defendants are using the LV Properties in order to compete with and otherwise benefit from the recognition and goodwill of Plaintiff's LV Properties and from the desirability of products bearing Plaintiff's LV Properties. As such, Defendants' Infringing Activities appear to be precisely calculated to divert Plaintiff's customers and to otherwise commercially benefit from Plaintiff's fame and goodwill.

30. Louis Vuitton has demanded that the Defendants stop their unlawful infringements. Defendants promised to stop such activities by July 2, 2007, but have not ceased their Infringing Activities. This conduct shows the Defendants to be willful and malicious infringers of the LV Properties.

31. Defendants' Infringing Activities are likely to injure Plaintiff's goodwill and reputation. The use by Defendants of Infringing Material identical to the LV Properties unfairly and unlawfully wrests from Plaintiff control over its trademarks, copyrights and reputation. Plaintiff has no control over the Defendants' actions, and Plaintiff has no control over whether consumers receive the so-called "free handbag and wallet" as promised to them. As a result, Plaintiff's extremely valuable reputation is being permanently damaged. If Defendants' conduct is not enjoined, it will greatly injure the value of the LV Properties and the ability of the LV Trademarks to indicate goods emanating from their source, namely Louis Vuitton.

32. Defendants' Infringing Activities have caused and will continue to cause irreparable damage to the business and goodwill of Plaintiff unless permanently restrained by this Court.

33. Plaintiff has no adequate remedy of law.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF
TRADEMARK INFRINGEMENT (15 U.S.C. §1114(1))

34. Plaintiff repeats and realleges paragraphs 1 through 33, above, as if fully set forth herein.

35. Defendants' Infringing Activities are likely to cause confusion and mistake and to deceive Defendants' customers, potential customers and the public as to the source or sponsorship of Defendants' activities. Consumers are likely to be misled into believing that Defendants' Infringing Activities are authorized by, licensed by, sponsored by or otherwise approved by the Plaintiff. Such confusion is inevitable here where Defendants are using trademarks and copyrights identical to the LV Properties in connection with handbags, the very goods on which Plaintiff uses its LV Properties.

36. Upon information and belief, Defendants were on both actual and constructive notice of Plaintiff's exclusive rights in its LV Trademarks, which are registered and incontestable. Defendants' use of Plaintiff's LV Trademarks is

- (i) willful,
- (ii) in bad faith,
- (iii) done with full knowledge of Plaintiff's prior use of, exclusive rights in and ownership of the LV Trademarks,
- (iv) done with full knowledge of the goodwill and reputation associated with the LV Trademarks, and
- (v) done with full knowledge that Defendants have no right, license or authority to use the LV Trademarks.

37. Defendants' acts are intended to reap the benefit of the goodwill that Plaintiff has created in the LV Trademarks and constitute infringement of Plaintiff's LV Trademarks in violation of Section 32(1) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. §1114(1).

38. Defendants' conduct has caused and is causing immediate and irreparable injury to Plaintiff and will continue to damage the Plaintiff and to deceive the public unless enjoined by this Court. Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF
FEDERAL UNFAIR COMPETITION (15 U.S.C. §1125(a))

39. Plaintiff repeats and realleges paragraphs 1 through 38, above, as if fully set forth herein.

40. Defendants' use of trademarks identical to Plaintiff's LV Trademarks in the advertising and marketing of their goods and services, constitutes false designation of origin and false representation with respect to the origin of Defendants' goods and services. Defendants' use of the LV Trademarks is likely to cause confusion, mistake, and deception as to the source of Defendants' activities and is likely to create the false impression that Defendants are affiliated with Plaintiff or that their activities are authorized, sponsored, endorsed, licensed by, or affiliated with Plaintiff. Defendants' actions constitute unfair competition in violation of Section 43(a) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. §1125(a).

41. Defendants' conduct has caused and is causing immediate and irreparable injury to Plaintiff and will continue both to damage Plaintiff and to deceive the public unless enjoined by this Court. Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law.

THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF
FEDERAL DILUTION (15 U.S.C. §1125(c)(1))

42. Plaintiff repeats and realleges paragraphs 1 through 41, above, as if fully set forth herein.

43. Plaintiff's LV Trademarks are extraordinarily famous and well known throughout the United States, having been used exclusively and extensively by Plaintiff for decades. By reason of Plaintiff's extensive advertising and use, Plaintiff's LV Trademarks have become highly distinctive of Plaintiff's goods and are uniquely associated with the Plaintiff.

44. Defendants' unauthorized commercial use of Plaintiff's LV Trademarks for goods and services not controlled by Plaintiff commenced long after Plaintiff's LV Trademarks had been federally registered and had become famous.

45. Defendants' use of Plaintiff's LV Trademarks is likely to dilute the distinctive quality of Plaintiff's famous marks by (i) lessening the capacity of the LV Trademarks to identify and distinguish genuine products of Plaintiff or to identify and distinguish Plaintiff exclusively as the source of goods bearing or provided under the LV Trademarks, and (ii) by harming the reputation of the LV Trademarks, in violation of 15 U.S.C. §1125(c).

46. Defendants' use of Plaintiff's LV Trademarks for their own commercial business purposes is intended to and has the effect of trading on Plaintiff's reputation and causing dilution of Plaintiff's famous marks.

47. Upon information and belief, Defendants do not own any federal or state trademark registrations for any mark that includes, in whole or in part, any of Plaintiff's LV Trademarks and cannot assert any rights in Plaintiff's LV Trademarks that are prior to Plaintiff's rights.

48. Defendants' foregoing conduct is causing Plaintiff irreparable injury. Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law.

FOURTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
FALSE ADVERTISING (15 U.S.C. §1125(a))

49. Plaintiff repeats and realleges paragraphs 1 through 48, above, as if fully set forth herein.

50. Defendants' use of trademarks identical to Plaintiff's LV Trademarks in advertisements for Defendants' services constitutes false advertising, and Plaintiff is likely to be damaged as a consequence of the statements and promises appearing in these offensive advertisements. Defendants use Plaintiff's LV Trademarks solely to entice consumers to visit their websites and to provide Defendants with valuable personal information in exchange for a purportedly "free" Louis Vuitton product. Upon information and belief, it is highly unlikely – if not impossible – that consumers will actually receive a "free" Louis Vuitton product from Defendants because of the numerous demands made on consumers in order to qualify for a "free" Louis Vuitton product. Defendants require completion of several tasks, including, among others, (i) completion of extensive consumer surveys, (ii) purchases of several third-party products and services, (iii) referral of additional households that must complete the same process. Defendants' use of Plaintiff's LV Trademarks as a lure to consumers constitutes false advertising in violation of Section 43(a) of the Lanham Act, 15 U. S. C. §1125(a)

51. Defendants' conduct has caused and is causing immediate and irreparable injury to Plaintiff and will continue to damage Plaintiff and to deceive the public unless enjoined by this Court. Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law.

FIFTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
UNFAIR AND DECEPTIVE BUSINESS PRACTICES
MASSACHUSETTS CHAPTER 93A, SECTION 11

52. Plaintiff repeats and realleges paragraphs 1 through 51, above, as if fully set forth herein.

53. Defendants' acts set forth above constitute unfair and deceptive business practices in violation of Mass. Gen. L. ch. 93A, §2 in that the actions have caused confusion in the minds of the consuming public, injured the Plaintiff's goodwill, and unjustly enriched the Defendants at the expense of and to the detriment of the Plaintiff.

54. Defendants' acts are knowing and willful violations of Gen. L. ch. 93A §2 and are causing Plaintiff irreparable injury. Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law.

SIXTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT (17 U.S.C. §501)

55. Plaintiff repeats and realleges paragraphs 1 through 54, above, as if fully set forth herein.

56. Defendants, commencing well after Louis Vuitton obtained its Copyright Registrations for the LV Designs, and without Louis Vuitton's authorization or consent, have reproduced images on the Internet which are copied and/or derived from and are substantially similar to the LV Designs, thereby infringing Louis Vuitton's exclusive rights in the LV Designs in violation of Section 501 of the Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. §501.

57. Defendants' infringement of Louis Vuitton's exclusive rights in the LV Designs is knowing and willful, has caused Louis Vuitton damage, and has enabled Defendants to profit therefrom illegally.

58. Defendants' conduct has caused and will continue to cause irreparable injury to Louis Vuitton unless enjoined by this Court. Louis Vuitton has no adequate remedy at law.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff Louis Vuitton Malletier, S.A. respectfully demands judgment as follows:

1) That a preliminary and permanent injunction be issued enjoining Defendants and their officers, agents, privies, shareholders, principals, directors, licensees, attorneys, servants, employees, affiliates, subsidiaries, successors and assigns, and all those persons in concert or participation with any of them, and any entity owned or controlled in whole or in part by any of the Defendants, from:

- (a) Using any of Plaintiff's LV Trademarks, or any simulation, reproduction, copy, colorable imitation or confusingly similar variation of any of Plaintiff's LV Trademarks in or as part of a design, logo, or trademark or otherwise using such a mark in connection with the promotion, advertisement, sale, offering for sale, manufacture, production or distribution of any business, product or service;
- (b) processing, packaging or distributing any material bearing any of Plaintiff's LV Trademarks or any mark that is a simulation, reproduction, copy, colorable imitation or confusingly similar variation of any of Plaintiff's LV Trademarks;
- (c) selling, offering, marketing, distributing, advertising, disseminating or otherwise providing any product that bears any of Plaintiff's LV Trademarks, or any mark that is a simulation, reproduction, copy, colorable imitation or confusingly similar variation of any of Plaintiff's LV Trademarks;
- (d) using any false designation of origin or false description (including, without limitation, any letters or symbols), or performing any act, which can or is likely to lead members of the trade or public to believe that Defendants are

- associated with Plaintiff or that any product offered, marketed, distributed or sold by Defendants is in any manner associated or connected with Plaintiff, or is authorized, licensed, sponsored or otherwise approved by Plaintiff;
- (e) engaging in any other activity constituting unfair competition with Plaintiff, or constituting an infringement of any of Plaintiff's LV Trademarks;
 - (f) diluting or tarnishing any of Plaintiff's LV Trademarks;
 - (g) applying to register or registering in the United States Patent and Trademark Office or in any state trademark registry any mark consisting in whole or in part of any of Plaintiff's LV Trademarks or consisting in whole or in part of any simulation, reproduction, copy or colorable imitation of any of Plaintiff's LV Trademarks;
 - (h) infringing Louis Vuitton's copyrights for the LV Designs, including, without limitation, by reproducing, distributing, advertising, promoting, marketing or selling the LV Designs, any products bearing the LV Designs or any other products or materials copied or derived from the LV Designs; and
 - (i) assisting, aiding or abetting any other person or business entity in engaging in or performing any of the activities referred to in subparagraphs (a) through (h), above.

2) Directing Defendants to disclose to Plaintiff the sources of Defendants' purported "free" Louis Vuitton handbags and wallets and to identify the names, addresses and telephone numbers of all persons who have received the purported "free" Louis Vuitton products.

3) Directing that Defendants make all books, records (including all hard drives on computers used for business purposes, including servers, as well as all computer disks and backup disks) and other documents concerning all transactions relating to the Infringing

Activities available to Plaintiff for review, inspection and copying, and provide Plaintiff the names, addresses and all other contact information in Defendants' possession (e.g., telephone numbers, e-mail addresses, fax numbers) for the source of the Infringing Material, including all licensees, advertising agencies and website developers.

4) Directing such other relief as the Court may deem appropriate to (a) prevent the public from deriving the erroneous impression that any activities undertaken or engaged in by Defendants are authorized by Plaintiff or related in any way to Plaintiff or that Defendants are otherwise affiliated with Plaintiff, and (b) prevent Defendants from reproducing or creating derivative works of the LV Designs or otherwise infringing Louis Vuitton's copyrights for the LV Designs.

5) Directing that Defendants file with the Court and serve upon Plaintiff's counsel, within thirty (30) days after entry of judgment, a report in writing under oath setting forth in detail the manner and form in which Defendants have complied with the above.

6) Awarding Plaintiff its actual damages, trebled pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §1117(a) and (b), arising out of Defendants' acts of willful trademark infringement..

7) Awarding Plaintiff actual damages, trebled pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §1117(a) and (b), arising out of defendant's acts of willful unfair competition and trademark dilution.

8) Requiring Defendants to account for and pay over to Plaintiff three times the profits realized by Defendants from their infringement of Plaintiff's LV Trademarks and their unfair competition with Plaintiff.

9) Awarding Louis Vuitton all damages sustained by Louis Vuitton as a result of Defendants' copyright infringement described above, including statutory damages for willful infringement in the amount of $150,000 per infringement.

10) Requiring Defendants to account to Louis Vuitton for, disgorge and pay to Louis Vuitton, all the gains, profits, savings, and advantages realized by Defendants from their acts of copyright infringement described above;

11) Awarding to Louis Vuitton, at its election, statutory damages within the provisions of Section 504(c) of the Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. §504(c), enhanced to reflect the willful nature of Defendants' infringement, instead of an award of actual damages or profits.

12) Awarding to Plaintiff exemplary and punitive damages to deter any further willful infringement as the Court finds appropriate.

13) Awarding to Plaintiff its costs and disbursements incurred in this action, including reasonable attorneys' fees pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §1117(a).

14) Awarding to Plaintiff its full costs and disbursements incurred in this action, including reasonable attorneys' fees, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. §505.

15) Awarding to Plaintiff treble damages and its reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to M.G.L. c.93A, §11.

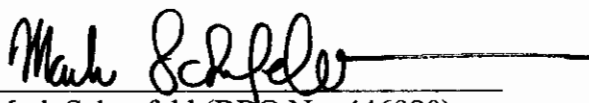

16) Awarding to Plaintiff interest, including pre-judgment interest on the foregoing sums.

17) Awarding to Plaintiff such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.
